DEPARTMENT OPEN HOUSE ON TUESDAY

Department Applied Sciences and Arts Will Be "At Home" Tuesday.

"FIVE PUNCHES FOR PUNCH" IS SLOGAN

Students, Faculty and Townspeople
Are Invited to See Work That Has Been Done This Year.

Open house will be observed by the department of applied science and arts on Tuesday afternoon, April 24, from 2 to 5:30 o'clock, according to J. W. Hungate, department head. All rooms of the department will be open for inspection, and exhibits of work will be shown.

"Five punches for punch" is the slogan adopted for the occasion. Punch and wafers will be served to all who visit, each of the five subdivisions of the main department during the afternoon by the cooking classes, under the direction of Mrs. Dora Lewis.

Cards will be given visitors, and they must be punched in each department before refreshments are served. The cards will then be signed by the holder and turned in. In this way a record of visitors will be obtained.

Miss Edith Patterson's department will present a musical skit in assembly Tuesday morning to open the affair. Correct and incorrect styles of dress will be shown and also the correct style of clothing for various types of persons.

Members of the various classes will act as hostesses in their own classrooms and will answer any questions asked regarding their work.

Students will be doing lettering, clay modeling, basket weaving, drawing, water coloring and art metal work in the art department, under the direction of Miss Mary Swerer and Miss Hazel Plympton.

Displays of plain sewing, dress-making, millinery, art needle work and costume design will be shown in Miss Edith Patterson's department of domestic art.

E. L. Dale's rooms in the manual arts building will be filled with displays of work done in that department during the year. A radio demonstration will be given if the radio outfit on which Mr. Dales is now working is completed by Tuesday.

Tables will be set for three meals, and exhibits of cooked foods, table favors, food value comparisons and nutrition work will be shown in the domestic science department.

Incubators, brooders, bird houses, posters, feeding rations, and diagrams from the biology class will be shown in the agriculture and biology department, according to J. W. Hungate. Milk testing, using the Babcock system, will be done.

Townspeople as well as students and faculty are invited to attend.

PLAN TO ENLARGE THE NORMAL ANNUAL

A 1923 Kinnikinnick of 140 Pages Is Being Considered by Staff.—Due to Much Advertising.

A 1923 Kinnikinnick of at least 140 pages is the present intention of the management. The increase in size—the first estimate was made "on the basis of 128 pages—has been made possible by extra advertising and the generous support of the students during the final subscription campaign, according to the management.

Hal Nourse, advertising manager of Kinnikinnick, has obtained nearly twice as much advertising as the original estimate called for. This extra advertising in addition to taking space that had been set aside for other items, brought sufficient revenue to warrant the consideration of an increase in size.

Definite assurance has been given that the books will be ready for distribution not later than May 20.

Improve Y. W. Room

Miss Josephine FitzGerald and Villa Brock have been appointed as a committee to arrange for improvements in the Y. W. C. A. room. Results of their work are already noticed by the cleanliness of the window curtains and the addition of two rugs to the room. Girls are asked to cooperate by not eating their lunches in this room.

Miss Davidson Honored

Miss Flora Davidson of the Training school faculty was elected president of the primary section at the Inland Empire Teachers' convention.

Big Six and Many Straw Bosses Directed Campus Day Activities Last Wednesday

Every student in Normal did his bit to the campus, Wednesday afternoon, under the direction of the "big six committee," composed of Clarence Jayne, chairman; Claude Turner, Robert Hungate, Amelia Thom and Marie Murphy. Work was conducted around various sections of the campus, supervised by "straw bosses." C. S. Kingston, erstwhile vice president of the institution, bossed the lawn mowing squad, and Dr. Clara Greenough, commanding Mrs. Grace Hulscher, W. E. Haeseler and Miss Ada Louise Bell, played the role of a heroic "Gunga Dir" to thirsty workers. Hazel Rayburn used her executive ability on the left front lawn, and Edith Freeborg bossed the right. Other straw bosses were:

Ruth Horn, training school; Mildred Roberts, training school; Arthur Stram, Monroe Hall tennis courts; Ina Wilson, refreshments; Earl Reed, rolling tennis courts; Dean

Killgore, path to athletic grounds; Bob Farnsworth, bleachers on athletic field.

Beatrice Roberts, transplanting plants; Florence Stowe, Senior Hall; Marion Constans, Training school and gardens; Lee Iah Kirklin, heating plant; Quimby Lefevre, Gordon McDonald, Wade Moore and Omer Pence, wheel barrows; Harold Phelps, signs; Con Callahan, Normal avenue tennis courts; Earl Akers and Carlos Scott, cinder gang; Ray Ward, hose gang; A. A. Eustis and L. V. Tyler, general supervision on athletic field. Paddle squad, Stan Wynstra, boss. Blair Chenoweth and Raymon Sooy, girls' disciplinary committee, Janett Craig, Vera Bardwell, Geraldine Guertin, Virginia Showalter, Helen Buchanan, Grace Humphries and Rowena Nance.

Light refreshments were served from Monroe Hall late in the afternoon.

NEWSPAPER MEN ATTEND MEETING

Group One of State Press Association Holds Convention at Normal School.

8 COUNTIES REPRESENTED

Six Newspapers of Lincoln County Send Representatives to Meeting.—Editors Dinner Guests.

NEW DISTRICT OFFICERS
President, E. F. Hultgren, Sprague, reelected.
Secretary, J. Orin Oliphant, State Normal, Cheney.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED
"Resolved, That we extend a sincere vote of thanks to the people of Cheney, the Cheney Commercial club, the State Normal school, its officers and student body, for the hospitality and entertainment expressed by and shown by them on every hand during our visit with them on April 14."

Editors of newspapers in eight counties of Eastern Washington attended the convention of Group I of the State Press association at the Normal school last Saturday. The convention opened at 10:30 in the morning and was concluded by a banquet given by the Cheney Commercial club in the evening. Nearly 30 delegates were present.

Whitman, Adams, Spokane, Lincoln, Yakima, Franklin, Grant and Pend Oreille counties were represented. Lincoln county, with six newspapers represented, had the largest delegation of any county of the district.

President Showalter gave the address of welcome and called attention to the fact that the work of the newspaper men is similar to that of public school teachers. He urged greater cooperation between the two groups in solving community and state problems.

E. F. Hultgren of Sprague, president of the group, responded to the address of welcome. Chapin D. Foster of Grandview, chairman of the executive committee of the State Press association, also responded. He traced briefly the development of country journalism in the state of Washington and mentioned the types of service that country newspapers render. He predicted that the day would soon come when a newspaper would be considered more important to a community than a bank. The State Press association of Washington, he said, has few equals in the United States.

"Pioneer Records as News"
Vice President C. S. Kingston spoke on "Pioneer Records as History" and told of the work that is being done at the Normal school in collecting records of pioneers of Eastern Washington. He emphasized the importance of preserving files of newspapers for future reference.

Paul Merriman, accompanied by Vivian Ray, gave a saxophone solo, and Miss Agnes Schelling gave several readings.

Newspaper men attending the convention and several members of the faculty were guests for luncheon at Monroe Hall. After luncheon an hour was spent inspecting the various buildings.

The afternoon session was devoted to an informal discussion of editorial problems. L. C. Weik, editor of the Odessa Record, told of "Newspaper Grafters I Have Known." Among the list of "grafters" he placed government officials, state and county politicians, large corporations and community organizations. He maintained that newspapermen should be paid for the service they give to the same extent that merchants and bankers

DRAMA LEAGUE WILL APPEAR AT NORMAL

Mrs. Sarah Tenax Albert and Spokane Players Will Present "Mr. Pim Passes By" on April 26.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" will be presented by the Drama League players of Spokane, under the direction of Mrs. Sarah Tenax Albert, in the Normal auditorium Thursday evening, April 26. Characters are as follows: Anne, Marcelline Malverton; Caraway Pine, George P. Fuller; Dinah, Lucile Elliott; Brian Strange, John Happy; Olivia Marden, Katherine Chickering; George Marden, J. P. James Emmett Royce; Lady Marden, Jesse Oldt.

Miss Lucile Elliott, a member of the faculty of North Central high school, is a graduate of the Normal school.

Informal Dance of Spring Quarter Is In Japanese Style

Bright-hued butterflies, Japanese lanterns, and the presence of numerous gaily colored gowns gave a springlike touch to the informal dance of the spring quarter, which was held on Saturday evening, April 14, in the Normal gymnasium. Music was furnished by the school orchestra, members of which were attired in keeping with the Japanese decorations. Presiding at the punch bowl throughout the evening were girls attractively gowned in Japanese kimonos.

A number of Cheney alumni were present, in addition to many outsiders. Patrons and patronesses for the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Whitford, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Stronach, Miss Antoinette Dustin, Miss Ada Louise Bell, Miss Margaret Paige, Miss Alice Alexander, Mrs. Fred M. Seeber and Mr. and Mrs. Damrell.

June McChesney was chairman of the refreshment committee. Those helping her were: Hazel Campbell, Annabelle Fahey, Wilma Garner, Edith Walston, Elberta McNeil and Josephine Bresnahan. Those working on the decoration committee were: Frieda Shook, Jessie Duff, Florence Brown, Elizabeth Babcock, Rowena Nance, Marion Constans, Glen Jones, Thor Anderson and Ted Garred.

As far as was noticed all rules laid down by Daisy Talksom were carefully observed throughout the evening.

Will Attend School Meet

E. L. Dales will act as judge at the county school manual arts exhibit at Ritzville April 28. The Adams county track meet will be held in conjunction with the school exhibit.

Make Radio Set

A radio receiving set, capable of receiving messages from places as far east as Chicago, is being made by one of the manual arts classes of the Normal school, under the supervision of E. L. Dales. The set will probably be completed this week. The total cost of the set, says Mr. Dales, will be approximately $75.

Normal Girls Prepare For a Grand Council Fire This Week-end

A grand council fire of all Camp Fires in Cheney will be held tonight, in the gymnasium at 8 o'clock. More than 100 girls will take part, and each camp will respond to roll call with an original cheer. An admission price of 25 cents will be charged.

Miss Annette Francisco, executive secretary of Camp Fire, will direct the program of the evening. Miss Francisco has been connected with Camp Fire work as executive secretary of the Inland Empire for the last two years. During this time the number of camps in Spokane alone has increased from five to 50 groups, making a total of more than 1000 members.

Through the efforts of Miss Francisco a camp has been purchased at Mica Bay, Coeur d'Alene lake, which is open to all Camp Fire girls on June 24. Miss Edith Kemphorn, national field secretary, will give a special training course at the camp.

Since Miss Francisco's visit here in January, Camp Fire has increased from 50 to 150 members.

More Than Two Hundred Students Are Applicants for Normal Certificates

Normal School Diplomas
More than 200 students of the Normal have applied for diplomas and certificates this quarter. This number, according to the registrar, is a new record for the school. All who wish diplomas or certificates, and who have not yet made application, are urged to report at the registration office not later than today.

Mrs. Lillie Anderson, Doris Edna Bacon, Alice M. Baer, Charles Henry Bailey, Gladys Edith Barnard, Miriam B. Baumgart, Alice E. Beale, Mary Blahm, Paul Blauert, Edward Bloom, Ellen Gertrude Bonar, Josephine Bresnahan, Florence Brown, Colina Elizabeth Campbell, Hazel Campbell, Anna Canutt, Gladys Ruth Clayton, Lona Elizabeth Cole, Neva E. ## TEN STUDENTS OF NORMAL TO GO TO SEATTLE

Cadet Teachers From Cheney
Have "Made Good" in Seattle.

GEORGE E. CRAIG COMMENDS PLAN

Superintendents in Large City Systems
Should Help to Train Inexperienced Teachers for Service.

Graduates of the Normal school during the last two years have been so successful in the public schools of Seattle, according to Superintendent Thomas R. Cole, that he has placed a request for 10 members of this year's class with the appointment committee of the Normal school. Recommendations for 10 students were forwarded to Seattle this week. All of them are inexperienced teachers.

Last year and the year before four graduates of the Normal were sent to Seattle as cadet teachers. The experiment of placing inexperienced teachers in a large school system—an innovation in this state—has proved so successful in Seattle that George E. Craig, chairman of the Normal appointment committee, believes that the plan will ultimately be adopted by superintendents of other large systems.

"For many years I have urged superintendents to take a few inexperienced teachers into their systems each year," says Mr. Craig. "For such positions, of course, I would recommend only graduates who give promise of continued growth and who are willing to remain in a system for several years. It would not be fair to a superintendent to ask him to train inexperienced teachers if they intended to remain with him only for one or two years.

Approves Cadet System

"Seattle is to be congratulated on the cadet system which has been adopted there. It is impossible for the Normal school, regardless of the excellence of instruction that may be given, to turn out a finished teacher in two, or even in four years. Before the teacher can give the best of service she must have experience in a classroom. If is very fortunate if she can obtain that experience under expert supervision. It is fortunate for her and for the school system of the state.

"It is customary for large city systems to demand at least two years of experience as a pre-requisite for a position. It follows, therefore, that the required experience must be obtained either in the rural schools or in small town schools where there is little or no supervision. Under such conditions the mistakes of inexperience are frequently not overcome for years. The children suffer because nobody is at hand to advise the beginning teacher.

"Most of our inexperienced teachers go into the rural schools of the Inland Empire. Our present archaic system of public school organization does not permit a county superintendent to do much supervisory work. Conditions in the rural schools are often not desirable from the standpoint of the teacher. The result is that most teachers, as soon as they have obtained the required experience in the country, leave the country schools and seek more desirable positions in the cities and towns. Under such a system the rural schools are forced to train teachers for the city schools. It is indefensible.

Cities Should Train Teachers

"It is my belief—and I believe that it is shared by all persons who have worked as supervisors—that the city superintendents should assume a part of the burden of preparing inexperienced teachers for their work. Conditions for training teachers in the large systems are ideal. It is only fair that superintendents under such conditions should supplement the work of the normal schools in preparing an adequate corps of teachers for the state."

In explanation of the cadet system in Seattle Superintendent Cole has prepared the following statement:

"The requirements for teaching in Seattle elementary schools are graduation from a two-year course in an accredited normal school, plus two years of experience in a graded school system.

"Many young teachers who have not met the foregoing requirements apply for positions in Seattle. Since they are ineligible, they cannot be accepted as candidates for regular positions. A number of them are very desirable, as shown by their preparatory work in higher educational institutions, and, under good supervision,

THE OPEN HOUSE

It is conceivable that many students come to the Normal school, go to their classes day after day and eventually leave the institution without knowing much about it. It is natural for a person to think that the work in which he is engaged is all-important and that the work in which another person is interested is of small consequence. Unless people make an extra effort to jar themselves out of the little ruts which they make deeper every day, there is danger that, as they sink deeper into these ruts, they will become intellectually lopsided.

The department of applied sciences and arts is planning an open house next week for the purpose of introducing the students of the Normal school to the work of the various divisions of the department. How many know under what conditions the Journal is printed each week? How many know why it was necessary to order a new press for the print shop? How many know what courses are offered in the woodworking classes—in domestic science and domestic art? How many realize that the boys of the school are taught to make real furniture in the manual arts building? How many know anything about the equipment that the building contains?

Students who fail to inspect the work of the several divisions of this department next week will be losing a great deal. What is learned during the classroom recitation is but a small part of one's education. The ability to study outside of class, to observe carefully and check up intelligently upon one's observations—these will count in years to come. The person who goes through life without a great deal of intellectual curiosity, who is content merely with "getting by" in the little work which he has chosen to make a living, will inhabit but a small part of the earth. He will be forced to follow all his life where others lead. The purpose of higher education is to train leaders. Knowledge is the first requisite of leadership. Let the students of the Normal school start widening their intellectual horizon by finding out something of the work the "other fellow" is doing. Next week is a good time to start.

THE EDITORIAL CONVENTION

One of the most important conventions which can be held in a community is a convention of newspaper men. The meeting at the Normal school last Saturday, while not large, was representative of newspapers in eight counties—counties from which most of the students of the Normal school come and into which most of the graduates of the school go to find teaching positions. From the brief visit spent here the editors of these counties obtained a better knowledge of the Normal school and the work that it is doing. They will convey their impressions, through the columns of their newspapers, to thousands of people in Eastern Washington. In this manner only can most of the people of the state learn something of the Normal school. It is impossible for all of them to visit Cheney.

For many years it has been the policy of the Normal school to keep in touch with the people of the Inland Empire through the country newspapers. Whenever a student from a community enrolls in the Normal school a connection between that community and the Normal school is established. Not only are the people of the community interested in the welfare of the student, but their interest in the institution as a whole is quickened. They are interested in the reputation of the institution among leaders of the teaching profession, in the kind of buildings on the campus in the policy of the institution, in the manner in which state funds are spent for the operation of the institution. All of this information the Normal school has attempted to convey to the people of Eastern Washington. It has been successful to the extent that the country editors have cooperated. And that cooperation has been generous.

The Normal school has no propaganda to disseminate among the people. It is an institution maintained at state expense for the benefit of the people of the state. Recognizing that the newspapers of the state are a legitimate medium through which the people may be reached, and believing that the people who pay the taxes are entitled to all the information about the institution that can be considered as news, the Normal school in recent years has built up a small news service. Weekly letters are mailed to the various newspapers of the district. The purpose of these letters is two-fold: First, to give information regarding the students enrolled; secondly, to furnish information about the institution of general interest to the people.

After visiting the Normal school it is believed that the editors of this district have a much better understanding of the needs of the institution and that the news letters which are mailed from the school each week will be more meaningful to them. To the end that the people may better understand the responsibility of the Normal school in training teachers for the public schools of the various communities of the Inland Empire, the further cooperation of the country editors is invited. It is hoped that the newspaper men of Eastern Washington—the authorized spokesmen of their respective communities—will avail themselves of the opportunity to hold their conventions at the Normal school frequently. At all times the Normal school invites their cooperation in solving the problems of public school education.

Love and the Campus

As that season of the year when "a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love" is here, the thoughts of the purely aesthetic turn rather fearfully to the beauties of the campus. Of course, it is understood by all that the victims of the little god do not intentionally and with malice aforethought checkerboard the lawn by their aimless wanderings. That, however, does not save the lawns, so a plan is herein suggested. Now, while the season and the malady are in the early stages and the victims are still capable of conscious effort, why not try to "stay on the concrete and snare the grass?" Then, later, when the sweet spell has robbed its willing slaves of all power to think, the force of habit will assert itself and unconsciously all strolling will be on the walks. Thus, the beauty of the campus, as well as the happiness of the strollers, will be preserved.—Student.

Cheney Man Goes to Bellingham

F. W. Brockman, formerly a student of the Normal school, has been elected to the science department of the State Normal school at Bellingham. Mr. Brockman has had experience in the Kirkland and Chelalis high schools.

Extend Maid of Honor Election

The election for maid of honor to the May Queen has been extended until Saturday night at 8 o'clock, according to Dean Louise M. Spaeth, chairman of the election committee. Votes may be cast at the Cheney Drug Co.

Will Visit High Schools

A. A. Eustis and J. Orin Oliphant will leave Sunday for Wenatchee and will spend the following week visiting high schools in Chelan, Okanogan and Grant counties.

No Senior Sneak Day

No Senior sneak day will enliven the program of the present Senior A's. The present class, which has evidently been influenced by the stoic school of philosophy, says that the gay spring breezes will have no tempting charms and that furthermore, "early rising" such as is traditionally required for sneak day, is not a popular Senior A spring sport.

SALVAGE DEPARTMENT

Edited by

O. G. WHIZZ

Confined to the beaten paths of tradition, the ordinary journalist overlooks or discards much that is of vital interest to humanity. It is the purpose of the editor of this department to gather up the broken bits of news, weld them together and make them serve useful purposes. Motto: "What others discard we pick up."

An Apology

We wish to apologize for the condition of our column this week, but we have been unable to do better. Lacking the I. Q. required for success in work of this sort, we have been forced to rely upon our special contributors, Daisy Talksom, Dan T. Swearwell, Mlle. Faux-Pas and Jimmie. All of them are feeling "off color" this week. Jimmie makes no bones of saying that he has a grouch at the way "recent developments have went." Dan T. Swearwell finds no inspiration for free verse in the uncertain weather of springtime, and Daisy Talksom's "artistic temperament" is asserting itself once more. Mlle. Faux-Pas, when asked what she was going to do for us this week, merely shrugged her shoulders and uttered the French equivalent of "go chase yourself." So dear readers, you must be content with what we write this week.

A Short Campus Story

Under the silver glow of the moon they walked across the campus and seated themselves upon a rustic bench. Gently he clasped her hand in his. —?— ***** ...!!!!

Two Weeks Later

George E. Craig announced today that two prominent students of the school have signed contracts to teach in one of the best two-room rural schools in the Inland Empire.

Next June

Mrs. X. Y. Z., prominent in local society circles, announces the engagement of her daughter, Matilda Frances Ann, to Mr. B. A. Helpmeet. The marriage, which will take place late this month, will be the culmination of a romance begun when the two were students at the Cheney normal school. In September the happy young couple will begin teaching in one of the best two-room rural schools in Eastern Washington.—Society column of some newspaper.

Attention of Flunkers

Students who are in danger of flunking in something in applied sciences and arts are urged to attend the "open house" next week. According to our esteemed contemporary, to which reference has been made elsewhere in this column, there will be persons on hand to "tell you everything about the work." What an opportunity!

Getting Punched

We are informed by glancing over the columns of our respected contemporary and rival, the Journal, that a person will get his ticket punched when he attends the "open house" of the department of applied sciences and arts next week. The last time we attended a function of that sort a hard-boiled individual threatened to "punch our head" if we didn't get out of the way. But that "open house" was not being pulled off by said department of applied sciences and arts.

Athletic News Item

Word has come to us that a special committee of the "W" club, that organization composed of young men of the Normal who have won honors in the many sports, has appointed a special sifting committee. The duty of this committee will be to search diligently the records of all men of the school to the end that fitting honors may be conferred upon those who are found worthy.

It has been reported several times in recent weeks that there are many men of the school who excel in the most honored branch of sportdom that is known to the Mexicans and other Spanish-speaking peoples. This form of exercise differs materially from the grosser, more brutal forms which have been evolved by the Teutonic peoples in the northland. It is one in which a person may excel even though nature has not endowed him with a goodly portion of "beef."

By special arrangement with the chairman of this sifting committee, we are privileged to announce that the Salvage Department will be permitted to print the honor list as soon as the report of the committee has been approved by the organization. Watch for it first in this column.

Showing Our Hand Or a Confidential Chat

The Journal Aims:

1. To represent all activities of the Normal School fairly.
2. To print news articles that are not fringed with yellowness.
3. To insist that the attitude of the student body be strictly collegiate.
4. To make a newspaper that will be readable.

The Journal Can't:

1. Print everything in a manner to please everybody.
2. Let everybody determine the length of a story or its position in the paper.
3. Permit one group to ridicule another group.
4. Subscribe to the point of view that one activity is always more important than all others.

The Journal Hopes:

1. That its readers will realize that the staff is largely inexperienced.
2. That its readers will make comparisons only with papers published under like conditions.
3. That its readers will understand that stories are left out, cut down or inserted for good reasons and not to satisfy whims.
4. That typographical errors, though regrettable, are not a fair indication of ignorance.

Camp Fire

(By Charlotte Lang)

Camp Fire is a group of not more than 20 girls who appreciate the highest values in life and wish to live so that their daily lives may be the application and expression of their ideals. The foundation of the Camp Fire is the home. Fire, its symbol of home and hearth, appears, in the name of the organization. The work and ideals of Camp Fire girls had its direct origin in the home and private camp of Dr. and Mrs. Luther Halsey Gulick. The name of Dr. and Mrs. Gulick's camp, "Wohelo," which had been formed from the first two letters of "work," "health" and "love," became the watchword of the organization. Their slogan is, "Give Service." The law of the Camp Fire is:

1. Seek beauty.
2. Give service.
3. Pursue knowledge.
4. Be trustworthy.
5. Hold on to health.
6. Glorify work.
7. Be happy.

Honors, either leather or beads, are given for the seven crafts:

1. Home craft (orange for the flame).
2. Health craft (red for red blood).
3. Camp craft (brown for the woods).
4. Hand craft (green for growing things).
5. Nature craft (blue for the sky).
6. Business craft (yellow for gold).
7. Citizenship or patriotism (red white and blue honors).

The ceremonial part of Camp Fire is the part which many of the girls love best: for their ritual, their songs and dances, all are means of expressing their ideals. Any woman who is acquainted with the ideals of Camp Fire cannot help feeling that here is the thing which she was longing for when she was a growing girl; for Camp Fire does the things for its members which many mothers are too busy to do for their daughters; it helps them to express their ideals and aspirations and to share them with their friends. Each girl as she joins Camp Fire finds a name for herself which expresses some ambition or ideal. She then designs or chooses a symbol. To an outsider it is merely a design; to her it is a living, speaking part of herself.

We have six Camp Fires at the Normal at Cheney and two in the Training school. They are:

1. Chinook, Miss Virginia Dickinson, guardian.
2. Nyoda, Miss Charlotte Lang, guardian.
3. Tsianina, Miss Edith Patterson, guardian.
4. Iyega, Miss Elizabeth Martin, guardian.
5. Ute, Miss Elizabeth Martin, guardian.
6. Sacajawea, Miss Antoinette Dustin, guardian.

In the Training school:

1. Liawela, Dorothy Dodds, guardian.
2. Chewea, Daphne Dodds, guardian.

Next Friday, April 20, will be a red letter day for Camp Fire, as we are to have grand council fire at Cheney. Miss Annette Francisco, executive secretary, will preside. We hope that you will come to grand council fire.

Campfire Organizations

Elect Honorary Members

Members of the Chinook Camp Fire hiked toward Big Springs on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Virginia Dickinson, guardian, accompanied the hikers. Those present were: Jessie Hanna, Edna Miller, Erma Menath, Mildred Kirkpatrick, Ruth Lang, Louise Ferriman, Arlowene Riggan, Laura Hills, Dorothy Billson, and Gladys Crites.

Ruth Lang and Mildred Kirkpatrick were recently voted into the camp, and Dr. Clara Greenough was voted in as an honorary member.

Sacajawea Girls Hike

Girls of the Sacajawea Camp Fire hiked to Big Springs on Monday. Ideal weather, a jolly camp fire, and bountiful lunches aided in the good time. Plans for the hike were made by Florence Brown. The girls were accompanied by their guardian, Miss Antoinette Dustin. Camp members present were: Myrth Ashley, Elizabeth Grieve, Rosamond Matteson, Myrtle Sheets, Arta Verity, Garnett McCowan, Vivian Marberg, Helen Buchanan, Geraldine Guertin, Viola Hill and Jessie Duff.

Tsianina Camp Meets

Tsianina camp met Monday evening at 6:45. The meeting was for the purpose of practicing the camp songs, which are to be given at the ceremonial meeting. The girls also chose their Indian names. Tsianina camp met with Ute and Iyega camps at a ceremonial meeting Wednesday evening.

Senior Hall

The girls of Senior Hall are making plans for a float for the May day festival. Clara Peterson was chosen chairman of the committee in charge. Other members of the committee are June McChesney, Toto Johnson, Edna Miller, Hazel Campbell and Ilabelle Shanahan.

Helen Hanneman will spend this week-end at St. John.

Miss Annette Francisco, Miss Elizabeth Martin, Miss Antoinette Dustin, Rosamond Matteson, Kathleen Riley, Elizabeth Grieve, Garnett McCowan and Myrth Ashley will be guests of Myrtle Sheets at a slumber party Friday night after the grand council fire.

Miss Annette Francisco will be the guest of Senior Hall during her visit here.

Iva Shepardson and Miriam Baumgart visited at the home of Mrs. George Meyerhoff in Spokane last week.

Mrs. E. A. Alden, Cyril Alden and A. Roberts of Colfax were the guests of Elleen Alden Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Vivian Eaton spent the week-end in Spokane with friends.

Miss Jessie Thomas and Julia Cobb of Spokane were the guests of Olive Myers Saturday.

Rosie McClure, Clara Peterson, Ilabelle Shanahan, Oneta Olson, Toto and Tiny Johnson, Virginia Showalter and Janet Craig had a picnic at the tourist park Monday night.

Yep Kanum Hikes

To hike to Fish Lake and cook supper there next Wednesday evening is the plan which the Yep Kanum girls have made. The girls will divide into two groups, one group leaving at 3 and the other at 4 on Wednesday afternoon. Many other hikes are being planned by the Yep Kanums for the rest of the spring quarter.

Monroe Hall

Richard Haxton was a guest of Annalee Puller last week-end.

Miss Anne Norvell of Spokane was the guest of her sister, Irene Norvell, Saturday evening.

Miss Lorine Wilson of Livingston, Montana, a former Normal student, has been the guest of Margaret Burke, Dorothy Billson, Amber Clark and Marion Kienholz for the past week. Miss Amber Clark spent Tuesday at Monroe Hall.

George Madden was the guest of Alma Bennett Saturday evening.

Miss Viola Kelly of Spokane, a former Normal student, was the guest of Marion Kienholz, Dorothy Billson and Margaret Burke Tuesday evening. Serry Davis of Belmont was the guest of Miss Freda Shook last Saturday evening.

Mr. Norvell of Spokane was the guest of his niece, Irene Norvell, Saturday evening.

Miss Lena Witt, principal of the Roosevelt school, was the week-end guest of Miss Frances Wilson.

Miss Kelly, a student of 1910, was a guest at Monroe Hall Monday.

Delightful refreshments were served by Monroe Hall Wednesday afternoon to the Normal students.

Monroe Hall entertained about 30 members of the editors' convention at dinner last Saturday noon.

Miss Mildred Taylor of Spokane is a guest of Monroe Hall this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash of Spokane were guests of Miss Frances Wilson at dinner Sunday.

Miss Nella Wilson, vocational director at the North Central high school, was a guest of her sister, Frances Wilson, over the week-end.

Lorine Wilson of Missoula, Mont., has been a guest of the Misses Margaret Burke, Marion Kienholz and Dorothy Billson this week.

COLLECT CLOTHING FOR THE NEAR EAST

Girls of Normal Y. W. C. A. Get Nearly Six Hundred Pounds and Forward it to Seattle.

The old clothes drive for the Near East relief, recently conducted by the world fellowship and membership committees of the Y. W. C. A., netted between five and six hundred pounds of clothing for the cause.

Girls on the committee kept busy canvassing the town. With the aid of R. D. Baldwin's Ford the work was made much easier. The clothing received in the drive has been sent to Seattle for re-shipment to the Balkans.

Mildred Roberts and Dorce Dearborn were chairmen of the two committees.

Senior B Choose Colors

At a Senior B class meeting on Monday the class chose blue and silver as class colors and decided to have a May basket for the float for May day.

Amsel Barton was appointed chairman of a committee to get bids from the various studios for the class pictures. L. V. Tyler and Mrs. Dora Lewis are faculty advisers of the class.

NORMAL BOYS GET READY TO THROW SOME "RINGERS"

Barnyard golf will come into its own when players line up for a horseshoe tournament here on May 25 and 26. It is planned to have men's singles and doubles and, if the women are interested, women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles will be arranged. This should be an all-school tournament, and everyone is invited to take part. Just what prizes will be given the winners has not been decided, but this matter will be arranged according to the number of contestants.

BEAUTIFUL WOMAN SAYS ALL MEN VAIN

England's Famous Film Star Will Be Seen in the Normal Auditorium Tomorrow Night.

Lady Diana Manners, artist, musician, writer, daughter of the widely known Duke and Duchess of Rutland, high up among English nobility, and called England's most beautiful woman, has come out in no light vein against what she terms vanity of the male sex and the egotisms and foibles of men in general.

Lady Diana for years has done the unusual thing, has never been known to lack the courage to express publicly her opinions and convictions on any subject, but not since she decided to yield to the blandishments of J. Stuart Blackton and become a film star has anything she has done aroused quite so much discussion as her recent magazine article on "The Vanity of Men."

The Englishman always has prided himself on his reserve, his good form and virility. So it has come as something of a shock for so noted a woman and so gifted a commentator as Lady Diana to tell him he is not as he has traditionally thought himself to be.

Inasmuch as Mr. Blackton's photoplay, "The Glorious Adventure," the first Prizma color screen feature production ever made, and in which Lady Diana plays the leading feminine role is being shown in all the principal cities of the United States at this time, it is not altogether unlikely that American men, and women as well, will find food for both thought and comment in her views of men, their weaknesses and vanities. "The Glorious Adventure" is coming to the Normal tomorrow night.

"Men hate to be called vain," says Lady Diana, in part in her magazine article, which is directed at men generally. "Weightier indictments they will bear with a far greater degree of equanimity. Call them heartless, extravagant, lazy, pleasure-loving, selfish, deceitful, or even unprincipled and downright wicked; they may or may not admit the impeachment, but in any case they will be prepared to argue the point. Call them vain, and they immediately fly into a passion."

INVITE THE WORLD TO A CONFERENCE

Purposes of World Educational Conference Next Summer Announced.

UNDER N. E. A. AUSPICES

President Showalter is Member of Foreign Relations Committee in Charge of Program.

Objectives of the world conference on education, which is to be held at Oakland and San Francisco, June 28 to July 6, under the auspices of the National Education association, have been announced by the committee on foreign relations of the N. E. A. President Showalter is a member of the committee. They are:

1. To promote friendship, justice and good will among the nations of the earth.
2. To bring about a worldwide tolerance of the rights and privileges of all nations regardless of race or creed.
3. To develop an appreciation of the value and the inherited gifts of nationality through centuries of development and progress.
4. To secure more accurate and satisfying information and more adequate statements in the textbooks used in the school of the various countries.
5. To foster a national comradeship and confidence which will produce a more sympathetic appreciation among all nations.
6. To inculcate into the minds and hearts of the rising generation those spiritual values necessary to carry forward the principles emphasized in the Conference on Limitation of Armaments.
7. Finally throughout the world, in all schools, to emphasize the essential unity of mankind upon the evils of war and upon the absolute necessity of universal peace.

These objectives, according to the plan of the committee, are to be secured through the following means:

1. The teaching of international civics which will acquaint the rising generation with the various points of contact made necessary and facilitated by the modern means of communication and trade.
2. By the organization of textbook material used in the schools such as will give a more accurate visualization of the dominant traits, conditions and ideals of the nations.
3. Through the exchange of teachers and through scholarships to students of foreign countries.
4. By a program looking to universal education.
5. Through an exchange of articles on education, setting forth programs and methods used in the various countries and through an exchange of educational periodicals.

6. The designation of a day to be observed by all, which may be known as "World Good-Will Day," upon which such programs may be given as will promote international fellowship.

"The objects of the world's unifying movements can be brought into world conformity essential to peace and good will among men only through the schools of the nations and by teaching the rising generations the common origin of their kind and the common future of their descendants," declares the committee. "The school, therefore, is the initial decisive factor in the future of civilization."

SPOKANE "U" MEETS NORMAL TEAM TODAY

Traditional Rivals of Conference Will Cross Bats on Normal Diamond at 3:30 This Afternoon.

PROBABLE LINEUP

Turner, catcher.
Callahan, Moore or Howe, pitcher.
Snyder, first base.
Moore, second base.
Quinn, third base.
Killgore, short stop.
Pond, right field.
Hungate or Howe, center field.

When the Normal baseball team meets Spokane university on the Normal field at 3:30 this afternoon, the team will probably be lined up in the order given above. The traditional rivals of the conference will face each other with uneven records thus far. Cheney has won one game and Spokane university has lost one.

One week ago the Normal team struck a hitting stride which, if maintained throughout the season, may result in the bringing of the championship to the Normal school. Coach Eustis believes that his team has a good chance to win the game this afternoon.

NORMAL BASEBALL TEAM IS WINNING

Local Boys Take Spokane College Into Camp in Extra Inning Contest. —Spokane "U" Today.

The Normal baseball team took the measure of the Spokane college nine by a score of 6 to 4 in the first game of the season at Spokane last Friday. The score was tied at nearly every stage of the game, and an extra inning was required to decide the issue.

The first inning was scoreless, but in the last of the second Spokane college pushed one runner across and took the lead. In the first of the third the Normal tied the score and in the fourth added two more. Spokane college tied the score in the fifth and each team made one score in the eight, making the score 4 to 4, where it remained until the Normal made the needed two runs in the tenth.

The hitting and errors were divided about evenly between the two teams, although the Normal made the longest hits and the errors did not come at critical times. Callahan pitched good ball for the Normal, striking out 17. Turner, Quinn and Callahan each made one three-base hit, and Moore leaned on one for two bases. "Sad Slim" Smith of Spokane umpired. The batteries were: Normal, Callahan and Turner; Spokane college, Olson, Lee and Otness.

The Normal team will meet the Spokane university team here this afternoon, in the second conference game.

Plan Joint Entertainment

The Junior Chautauqua and the Dramatic club will give a joint program under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church on May 11. The Junior Chautauqua will give the play, "The Feast of the Holy Innocence." The play to be given by the Dramatic club is "Enter the Hero."

NORMAL-WHITWORTH MEET IS CANCELED

Coach Eustis Expects New Track Records to Be Set by Normal Team This Year.

The track meet with Whitworth college, scheduled to take place here May 5, has been called off, and a triangular meet, Gonzaga, Whitworth and the Normal, arranged for that date. It was thought advisable to change the arrangements in this way on account of the impossibility of getting the Normal track in shape for such a meet.

As the first meet is only two weeks away, Coach Eustis is drilling his track squad of 15 men to the limit, and from present indications it is reasonable to expect that several of the conference records will be broken by Normal men this year.

The Spokane collegiate records as they now stand are:

100-yard dash, 10 2-5 seconds, V. Neeley, Whitworth.
Pole vault, 10 feet, 5 inches, C. Crisp, Normal.
880-yard run, 2 minutes 10 2-5 seconds, A. Luttrupp, Normal.
Shot put, 40 feet, 9 inches, A. Byers, Spokane university.
120-yard high hurdles, 19 1-5 seconds, F. Howe, Normal.
High jump, 5 feet, 2 inches, J. England, Spokane university.
220-yard dash, 23 seconds V. Neeley, Whitworth.
Broad jump, 20 feet, 10 1-2 inches, C. Crisp, Normal.
440-yard run, 58 seconds, R. Reed, Normal.

Discus throw, 109 feet, 7 inches, A. Byers, Spokane university.
Mile run 5 minutes, 12 2-5 seconds, A. Luttrupp, Normal.
Javelin throw, 135 feet 2 inches, V. Kearns, Normal.
220-yard low hurdles, 27 seconds, V. Neeley, Whitworth.
Relay, no time given; won by Whitworth.

The Normal team holds seven records, Whitworth four and Spokane university three.

CLOSE ENTRIES FOR TENNIS MEET TOMORROW NIGHT

Today and tomorrow are the last days in which to sign up for the tennis tournament, and those wishing to enter any of the events should register with Coach Eustis before tomorrow night. All that is necessary in registering is to hand in your name and the events you wish to enter. This must be done immediately in order that the ranking of the contestants can be arranged.

NORMAL STUDENTS TO GO TO SEATTLE

would shortly become strong teachers. In order to make use of these promising young graduates the cadet system was established.

"Cadet teachers are regularly employed teachers in the Seattle schools, receiving the yearly contract and definite assignment to a grade school position. They have the same responsibilities with relation to all school work or activities that other teachers have.

How Cadet System Differs

"The difficulties of a new position test all the powers of an experienced teacher. Necessarily, then, the success of an experienced teacher is a serious question. Even experience in a smaller school, where supervision of the most helpful nature is limited, does not prepare a teacher for the conditions that are met in a large organized school system. The cadet teacher, moreover, must from the beginning give satisfactory service of a high order, for she is competing constantly with teachers of wide and rich experience now in the system, and the pupils in a cadet teacher's room must have equal opportunity with the other boys and girls of the system.

"To help those teachers who have been selected as cadets, a head teacher is provided. The head teacher helps to make conditions leading to success more assured. She is concerned primarily with the method side of the cadet's work and with the progress of the pupils. She plans with the cadet and supervises this part of the cadet's school work. In all other respects the cadet's relation to the school is that of any regular teacher.

"Because the school board considers the first year of such work an additional year of training for the cadet, a smaller salary is paid. At present the salary is $1230. The second year the cadet, if successful, is placed on the first step of the salary scale, $1410, with the usual advances thereafter to the maximum.

Those Who Are Eligible

"Only those who are graduates of a normal school (or college) are eligible; those who have shown decided promise of becoming excellent teachers. None but the very best students of an institution should apply, for only they can hope to secure a position. The number of credits in education, the quality of practice work in teaching the breadth of culture, the possibility for growth in the power and skill of teaching are given careful consideration in the selection of a cadet teacher. The selection is so carefully made that only in rare instances has any cadet failed to succeed."

Advanced Students Picnic

The advanced students picnicked at the Big Springs Wednesday after school. They were accompanied by their class advisers, Miss Ruth Schwartz and W. E. Haeseler.

Owing to the time taken in roasting "weiners," making coffee and consuming the good "eats," the degree of initiation, "Boots and Shoes," was not administered to the new members. However, they will be given the mysterious rites of the organization, "the Half Moon," in the near future.

NEWSPAPER MEN ATTEND MEETING

are paid for the services they give.

In the discussion which followed Mr. Weik's address the difficulty of determining "where propaganda begins and news ends" was brought out. Mr. Weik declared that he considered as advertising an announcement of any event that was to be held for profit. Others took a different point of view, and the nearest approach to an agreement that was reached was that an editorial policy must be shaped in accordance with community conditions.

Guests at Dinner

At the commercial club banquet in the evening short talks were made by Chapin D. Foster of Grandview, N. Russell Hill of Davenport, J. P. Simpson of Ephrata, J. R. Dunphy of Spokane, Fred L. Wolf of Newport and E. F. Hultgren of Sprague.

The following newspapers were represented at the convention:

N. Russell Hill, Davenport Times-Tribune; Lincoln R. Lounsbury agricultural editor, State College, Pullman; E. L. Simpson, Lind Leader; F. P. Monteith, Fairfield Standard; W. D. Doell, Connell Globe; J. P. Simpson, Ephrata Journal; L. C. Weik, Odessa Record; R. W. Safford, Reardan Gazette; Chapin D. Foster, Grandview Herald; L. M. Swank, Cheney Free Press; C. F.
